NEW: RETTERSPLITZ EYE SERUM – FOR A NOTICEABLY SMOOTHER EYE AREA

Nuremberg, April 2026 – Healing, caring and well-being: for more than 120 years, Retterspitz has stood for these values as one of Germany's oldest pharmacy brands. With the new eye serum Retterspitz Augenserum, the family-owned company is expanding its proven medical facial skincare range with a newly developed product for the delicate eye area. The lightweight formula with hyaluronic acid in pharmacopoeia quality (Ph. Eur.) provides long-lasting hydration, while the included paracress extract helps smooth the appearance of fine lines.

A NATURAL ALTERNATIVE TO BOTOX

Retterspitz Augenserum is a slow-aging specialist that cares for the delicate eye area with carefully selected ingredients in pharmacopoeia quality. Long-chain hyaluronic acid (Ph. Eur.) intensely hydrates the skin's surface, helping to visibly reduce fine lines. Short-chain hyaluronic acid (Ph. Eur.) penetrates deeper into the skin, providing long-lasting moisture.

The formula is complemented by paracress extract. The spilanthol it contains helps relax facial muscles, reducing the appearance of early fine lines and expression wrinkles – offering a natural alternative to Botox.

MAKE YOUR EYES LOOK THEIR BEST

The skin compatibility of Retterspitz Augenserum has been clinically tested and rated "very good." The fragrance-free and vegan formula is suitable for daily skincare and for a variety of skin types, from dry to oily.
